

The Infant Toddler Children's Center (ITC) in Acton, MA is looking for a caring, creative Preschool teacher to join our dedicated team. Our passionate and engaging educators' partner with parents to create a warm nurturing learning environment that gives value to every child's unique capabilities and potential and celebrates early childhood as a precious time in children's lives. Founded in 1981, ITC is an independent, non-profit center, serving infants through preschool and their families each weekday from 7:45am to 5:00pm. Children and teachers enjoy the Center' 3-acre campus in Acton within walking distance from the commuter rail.

In addition to paid vacation, paid sick time and 10 paid holidays, our staff has the week between Christmas and New Year's Day as well as a week in August off with pay.

Our teacher compensation package also includes a highly competitive salary, 50% childcare tuition discount, flexible schedule including one afternoon off per week, healthcare benefits, flexible spending account, a 403B matched retirement plan and paid professional development opportunities.
